

Discounted Membership to American Political Science Association

As an AAPC member, you can save money by joining the American Political Science Association at the discounted rate of $60. With more than 13,500 members residing in over 70 countries worldwide, the American Political Science Association is the world's largest professional organization for the study of politics. APSA has an extraordinary range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions; the Association brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors in order to expand our awareness and understanding of political life.

For only $60.00, an APSA membership includes:

- Subscription to APSR and APSRonline, the leading journal of political science research.
- Subscription to PS: Political Science and Politics and POnline, the only quarterly professional news journal in political science.
- Perspectives on Politics and PerspectivesOnline, APSA's brand-new journal focused on review, integrative, and cross-disciplinary articles.
- Access to eJobs, APSA's online jobs database that lists virtually all academic and many applied political science jobs in the US.
- Access to MyAPSA, APSA's online member-only service that includes listing in Directory of Members Online, accessible only to APSA members.
